Service Offerings

Veeva offers “orange glove” service that covers an event from strategic alignment and planning all the way to close out. All service packages include a post-event budget report that follows best practices for compliance and a budget executive summary for sharing with internal stakeholders.

Strategic Meetings

Let the Veeva team focus on getting the right people in the room so you can focus on the big picture. Our services for advisory boards and speaker training include venue sourcing, participant management, travel logistics, materials development, and onsite or virtual support during the event. After the event, the team also helps with participant follow-up and feedback, so you can make your next meeting even better.

National Broadcasts

Make sure your broadcasters look and sound their best with our in-studio support package. Veeva handles vendor contracting, platform alignment, speaker travel, and remote site support leading up to the broadcast session. On the day of, we provide onsite resources to assist the speakers with A/V and logistics to ensure a smooth broadcast.

National Sales Meetings

Kick off the year on a high note for your field. For national sales meetings and plans of action, Veeva Digital Events helps you select a venue, manage vendor relationships, create event collateral, and ensure attendees arrive on time. During the event, we'll provide live and virtual support and close things out with attendee follow-up and event reconciliation.

Congress Support

Help your brand stand out from the crowd with Veeva Digital Events' comprehensive congress support services. Our team can help you secure a booth or sponsorship with the congress organizers via prospectus support, sponsor communications, and submissions.

We can also help with your booth—anything from vendor selection and management to design and structural support, as well as staffing and training. Outside of the booth, we can assist with ancillary meetings, housing management, and onsite requests for the venue to ensure all aspects of your brand's presence are the best they can be.

Virtual Support Services

Create a memorable virtual experience with our virtual event experts. Veeva provides services for virtual speaker training, advisory boards, broadcasts, peer-to-peer webinar series, and more—all to make your educational content more accessible to attendees, wherever they may be.

How We Work

Seasoned event professionals oversee your event from start to finish and help drive decisions that highlight your brand message without sacrificing compliance.
